Helping Hands Medical Mission Trip

Parishioners Amy Treichel and two of her teens (Alison and Jacob), will be traveling with a group of physicians, other medical volunteers, students, and a priest from our diocese, under the direction of Our Lady of Hope Clinic in Madison to El Salvador in March 2018. This service trip will provide medical care, clean water filters and evangelization to the poor in the area of Ateos, El Salvador.

Poverty rages in this area and the medical care we bring is likely all they receive for the entire year. Currently, we are ordering medical supplies and water filters that we will bring with us and upon our arrival we will set up a clinic at St. Anthony de Padua parish in Ateos and serve the surrounding communities. Please join us in the work that we will be doing! Any support you can give will make a tremendous difference and is a direct way of helping the poor. We are trying to raise funds to provide as many water filters and medical supplies as possible. Last year we served 1,800 people and treated a variety of conditions such as diabetes, high blood pressure, injuries, and mal-nourishment.

Please send donations to my address below. Checks may be made out to Helping Hands Medical Missions, HHMM is a 501 (c) non-profit. Website www.hhmm.org Please let me know if you have any questions about our trip. We sincerely appreciate your prayers.
